Dr Caroline Kenny KC C.Arb FCI Arb
Barrister, Mediator, Chartered Arbitrator

Dr Caroline Kenny KC is an international arbitrator specialising in commercial disputes. She has more than 35 years' experience acting in complex international matters, including over 15 years as King's Counsel. She is admitted as a legal practitioner in Australia, the United Kingdom and New York and maintains chambers in Melbourne and London. Caroline is a former Chair of the Australian Branch of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators (Ciarb) and is currently the Ciarb Trustee for Australasia and the only female Chartered Arbitrator in Australia. She is highly respected in the international arbitration community for her commitment to the promotion of arbitration as the preferred means for resolving international disputes and for her diligent, responsive, and practical approach as an arbitrator.

Caroline regularly sits as an arbitrator in the Asia Pacific Region, having served as presiding arbitrator, sole arbitrator and wing arbitrator in a range of complex disputes, principally in the finance, energy, insurance, M&A, CISG and sports sectors. Caroline's decision as an arbitrator was considered by the High Court of Singapore in 2015 in Malini Ventura v Knight Capital Pte Ltd and others where her approach to a challenge to jurisdiction was upheld by Justice Judith Prakash in the High Court and led to new law on a Tribunal's discretion under the Singapore International Arbitration Act 1994.

Caroline is on the panel of all major arbitral jurisdictions including the Singapore International Arbitration Centre (SIAC), the Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre (HKIAC), the World Intellectual Property Organisation (WIPO), and the International Centre for Dispute Resolution (ICDR). She has been Course Director for the Ciarb Diploma Course in Singapore and Australia and has regularly lectured in the Oxford Diploma Course.

Sapna Jhangiani KC C.Arb FCI Arb
Legal Counsel, Attorney-General's Chambers of Singapore

Sapna Jhangiani KC has over two decades' experience in appearing before courts and tribunals, and sitting as a neutral, in complex commercial disputes seated all over the world. She has practised in London, New York, Dubai and Singapore and is dual-qualified as an English barrister, and an advocate and solicitor of the Supreme Court of Singapore. She holds an undergraduate degree from Oxford University, and a diploma in international commercial arbitration from Queen Mary University, London, in which she graduated with distinction.

Sapna is consistently ranked in the leading legal directories, and was recognised by Asian Legal Business as one of Asia's top 15 female lawyers. She was also included in the inaugural list of "Asia's top 100 Lawyers" published by the Asia Law Business Journal. Sapna is currently International Legal Counsel at the Attorney-General's Chambers, Singapore, during which period she maintains a practice as arbitrator and mediator. She is a Fellow and Chartered Arbitrator of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators, and is Chair of Ciarb's Singapore Branch.
