International Arbitration and Mediation

The Chartered Institute of Arbitrators (Ciarb) is an independent, charitable membership-based organization committed to supporting the effective resolution of disputes. Ciarb champions all aspects of alternative dispute resolution (ADR) across arbitration, mediation and adjudication, setting robust ethical standards, and delivering learning and networking opportunities, qualifications, mentorship, research and resources, events and best practice guidance for members and ADR practitioners. Ciarb Caribbean Branch offers training for members, ADR practitioners and others with an interest in ADR and/or Ciarb membership. The 2024 Training Programme offers the courses in international arbitration and mediation as listed below.

Course information sheets and a registration form are available for download at www.ciarbcaribbean.org

Ciarb Student and Associate members are entitled to a 10% discount on all course fees except Module 3 courses
